97 DEAD IN WYOMING COAL MINE ACCIDENT

137 MEN ENTOMBED WHEN EXPLOSION ROCKS LOWER LEVEL

ONLY 37 CAME OUT ALIVE FROM KEMMERER COAL CO. MINE NO. 1

WORK OF RESCUE SQUADS IS BADLY HAMPERED BY GAS FILLING MINE

(By United Press)
Kemmerer, Wyo., Aug. 15.—Ninety-seven dead were accounted for at 7 a. m. today at the Kemmerer Coal company's mine No. 1, where 137 men were entombed.

Eighty-six bodies had been taken from the shaft and 11 more located in the workings.

After a complete checkup, mine officials said 137 men entered the shaft Tuesday. Of these 37 were brought out alive, leaving three unaccounted for.

Terrific Explosion in Lower Level

Most of the lives were lost in the mine below ground. There was a terrific explosion which rocked the lower levels of the mine, and poison gasses swept through the shafts, snuffing out lives of imprisoned workers.

The victims were charred beyond recognition, indicating an intense flame had shot and seared its way through the underground shafts, turning tunnels and passageways into an inferno.

The removal of victims to the Odd Fellows Hall, turned hastily into a morgue, was slow. As the cars came up from below with their tragic freight 1500 watchers — mothers' sweethearts, wives and fathers surged through the guards.

Scene Terrible One

The scene was the more terrible because on the caps of several miners the electric lamps still burned, casting weird shadows about.

While women sobbed, rescue crews worked doggedly below, fighting gas and debris. They are expected to keep up the search, hoping against hope of finding some of the men alive early today.

Their work was badly hampered by gas, and the transfer of bodies to Kemmerer was also slow. The rough roads are choked with townspeople, relatives of miners and curious. The trip from Kemmerer to the mine by the death wagons takes an hour.

Bodies Brought Up in Night

Bodies were brought to the surface at intervals during the night, and carried by rescue squads to temporary morgues, where frantic relatives of the entombed men clamored about.

It is believed that a gas explosion, followed by a tumbling of tons of earth, cut off about five score miners.

Blast Heard on Surface

The blast was heard on the surface, and rescue parties from surrounding camps and government rescue crews were quickly on the scene. It was five and one-half hours after the explosion before any of the survivors came to the surface, but to the joy of relatives and those gathered nearby and the crowd of miners they were still alive. Their joy was short-lived, however, for it was announced by experienced rescue workers that practically no chance remained for those still entombed.

Those who went into the gas-laden mine during the night fought their way through debris, fallen timbers, rocks and earth to the scene of the blast with the greatest difficulty. They found evidences that a desperate panic underground had caused many deaths.

In some instances apparently a group of miners, maddened by fear, had rushed blindly about until they encountered gas that was seeping through entries, then piled up hopelessly against an impenetrable barrier and died struggling.

ST. CLOUD BANKER WAS INDICTED

CHARGED WITH MAKING FALSE RETURNS AND FALSIFYING BANK BOOKS

(By United Press)
Fergus Falls, Minn., Aug. 15.—Ralph O. Olson, former president of the First National Bank of St. Cloud, was indicted on a charge of making false returns to the comptroller of currency in Federal court here late Tuesday. He is also charged with falsifying on the books of the bank. Six counts were returned against him, in two of which it is alleged his report showed undivided profits of $12,255.37 when they were only $306.32.

The Federal grand jury also indicted Joe Martin, indicted on a charge of murder after he is alleged to have trampled and beaten to death Susan DeSoe on the Red Lake Indian reservation in 1919. No explanation was offered for the crime, and the murder had been a mystery until some old squaws said they knew about it but were afraid to tell.

(By United Press)
Faribault, Minn., Aug. 15.—St. Cloud was named today as the 1924 convention city of the Minnesota department of the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary.

Two Contest for Commander
Only two men will be up for department commander of the Legion this afternoon. They are Ludvig I. Roe, newspaper publisher of Montevideo, and Jay C. Hormel, packer of Austin.

By adopting unanimously the report of the Welfare Committee as presented by S. B. Swenson, Minneapolis, the Legion went on record as favoring and asking:

COUNTERFEIT MONEY IS SEIZED ON LONG ISLAND

(By United Press)
New York, Aug. 15.—Secret service agents under the direction of Joseph Palma arrested five men in Floral Park, Long Island, during the night and confiscated more than $2,000,000 in counterfeit $100 bills, it was learned today.

The men arrested were Samuel and Davis Cohen, Joseph Rossos, Joseph Kittelbaum and George Sneros.

ed 28. The old-timer kept his comrades with him in a room that was free of gas. They were brought out alive. Those who rushed out into the shaft and met the gas fell dead.

GASOLINE PRICE CUTTING SPREADS EASTWARD TODAY

6.6 CENTS DECREASES IN 12 STATES SAVES CONSUMERS $1,000,000 DAILY

GOV. DONAHEY APPEALS TO THE PRESIDENT FOR CHEAPER GAS IN OHIO

(By United Press)
Gasoline price cutting spread to the east today. Atlantic seaboard companies announced reductions of one-half to two cents a gallon.

The 6.6 cents a gallon decrease inaugurated by the Standard Oil company of Indiana remained in effect in 12 mid-western states, saving consumers around $1,000,000 daily.

Governors of several states scored the price war as an attempt by the Standard Oil company to eliminate competition by crushing independent dealers.

Governor Donahey of Ohio appealed to President Coolidge for cheaper gasoline for Ohio, alleging that the big companies are discriminating by selling gasoline in Indiana at 16 cents, but maintaining a price of 20 cents in Ohio.

OHIO TO DETERMINE IF CONSPIRACY EXISTS

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 15.—Ohio probed state oil distributing companies today to determine whether a conspiracy existed to fix gasoline prices.

The investigation was started under the direction of the attorney general's department at the request of Governor Donahey.

GOV. McMASTER WON'T CALL OFF GAS WAR

Pierre, S. D., Aug. 15.—Governor W. H. McMaster has no intention of trying to "call off" the gasoline war at this time.

Although independent companies will continue to sell gasoline at present prices, no further steps will be taken to compete with distributing companies. The state gasoline supply depot at Mitchell has shut down. It served its purpose—forced Standard Oil of Indiana and independent companies to meet a price of 16 to 19 cents a gallon.

Whether that is a fair price Governor McMaster expects to determine by an investigation already under way. He believes that gasoline can be sold by independents in South Dakota for 16 cents at a fair profit.

Independent dealers called on the governor today to "call off" the price war, saying they faced bankruptcy. They asserted that a price of about 20 cents a gallon is a fair price in South Dakota, and asked the governor to take steps to establish such a price. The governor was expected to take their arguments into consideration.

COUNTRY EDITORS TO TURN REPORTERS STATE FAIR WEEK

Country editors of Minnesota will turn reporters State Fair week, and write news for a daily paper to be published on the Fair grounds by the Minnesota State Editorial association, according to plans announced. The paper will print special articles, historical sketches, messages from pioneer Minnesota editors and other features, and will operate a bulletin board on the grounds.

BRAINERD ELKS TO LEAVE FOR HIBBING, CONVENTION CITY

Brainerd Elks today, tonight and tomorrow will leave for Hibbing to attend the Elks state convention, holding forth August 16 and 17. The first to leave were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Parker. Mr. Parker is a delegate and is chairman of the house, social and community welfare committee.

A large group will leave about 3 o'clock Thursday morning so as to get the benefit of cool, dew-laden roads. Brainerd lodge will take part in the big parade set for twilight on Friday evening. To date it is figured that close to 30 will go from Brainerd and almost that many from the range towns.

COOLIDGE SAYS HE SEES NO NEED FOR SPECIAL SESSION

Washington, Aug. 15.—President Coolidge at the present time sees no occasion for a special session of congress in advance of the regular December meeting, it was said officially at the White House.

Mr. Coolidge was represented as not desiring to close the door entirely against an extra session, even though he sees at present no necessity for it. He recognizes, it was said, that there might arise an emergency which might warrant an extra session call, and in that connection it was made known that he is giving considerable study to the agricultural situation.

Numerous appeals for an extra session from agricultural interests have been called to the attention of Secretary of Agriculture H. C. Wallace, but there is no indication he favors steps to insure immediate legislative action.

$7,000,000 ADVERTISING PLACED BY FORD CO.

(By United Press)
Detroit, Mich., Aug. 15.—The Ford Motor company will soon become an advertiser in newspapers and publications throughout the country, after five years without advertising in the name of the company.

A contract for $7,000,000 worth of advertising to be placed in newspapers and publications in all parts of the country during the next year was announced today by the newly formed advertising department of the Ford company.

The contract was let to the Brotherton Advertising agency of New York, according to Norton T. Brotherton, advertising manager for the Ford Motor company.

STRESEMAN WINS CONFIDENCE OF THE REICHSTAG

OVERWHELMING VOTE IS ACCORDED NEW CHANCELLOR OF GERMANY

WILL CONTINUE RESISTANCE TO FRANCE AND BELGIUM IN RUHR

(By United Press)

Chancellor Stresemann's first appearance in the Reichstag, where he won an overwhelming vote of confidence last night after introducing his cabinet and declaring that resistance to France and Belgium in the Ruhr is to continue, led European political observers to the conviction that the change of government in Germany has merely served to strengthen that country's hand.

DE VALERA HAS SURRENDERED TO IRISH FREE STATE

TROOPS MARCH HIM AWAY UNDER ARREST TO MILITARY BARRACKS

FORMER "PRESIDENT OF IRISH REPUBLIC" FAINTED IN RAID MADE

(By United Press)
Ennis, Ireland, Aug. 15.—Eammon De Valera, arch-rebel of Ireland, surrendered himself to troops of the Irish Free State today and was marched away under arrest to military barracks.

Just previous to his arrest De Valera had fainted and fallen to the platform from which he had been addressing a political gathering. The erstwhile "president of the Irish Republic" lost consciousness during a stampede occasioned by the appearance of national troops in an armored car, who fired volleys over the heads of the crowd.

De Valera had been speaking about two minutes, addressing the men in behalf of Republican candidates up for election to the new Dail Eireann when troops hove in sight. The appearance of the rebel leader, whose followers are now reduced to a mere handful scattered in flight, had been advertised. It was not known whether he had been arrested temporarily or whether Free State authorities intend to detain him permanently.

Free State soldiers attempted to disperse the crowd by firing repeated volleys over the platform.

A stampede resulted, men and women scrambling wildly to get out of the way. During the height of the excitement De Valera fainted. It was first reported that he had been wounded.

Recovering from his faint after the rush had subsided, several of the crowd being trampled and bruised, the former president descended from the platform and surrendered to the commander of the troops. He was last seen under escort headed for the barracks.

TAXICAB OWNER AND DRIVER IN MELEE

Minneapolis, Aug. 15.—Emil Engstrom, police taxicab inspector, was fatally shot and Louis W. Taylor, president of the Redtop Cab company, was seriously wounded late last night in an attempt to capture William Slauffer.

The latter, a taxicab driver, shot down the two and escaped in a commandeered automobile.

Slauffer was sought by police after the holdup of P. E. Thom early Tuesday. Thom, bakery wagon driver, was strong-armed by three men. He was kicked in the mouth and lost two teeth as the thugs took $20.

Percy Phillips was arrested, and in a confession implicated Oscar Ingersoll, and Slauffer was also implicated.

Using Taylor's car, they were searching for Slauffer when they saw him standing on the curbing. They drew up to the curb, and as Engstrom stepped from the car Slauffer drew a gun and shot him down. Taylor stepped from the car and was also shot down. Engstrom died at 1:50 this morning, and Taylor is not expected to live.

Boxing Show

400 GALLONS BODY RUB ALCOHOL SEIZED AT SHERWOOD, N. D.

(By United Press)
Fargo, N. D., Aug. 15.—Federal authorities today believed they had stopped an extensive liquor traffic when they seized a second shipment of body rub alcohol at Sherwood.

The shipment contained 239 cases, totaling about 400 gallons. It was billed from the Fox Salem company, Minneapolis, to the same firm at Mohall, S. D. Agents believe it is a fictitious firm. Frank Sears and William Nimitz, both of Mohall, were arrested and placed under $1,000 bond for transporting liquor. The shipment was 90 per cent alcohol.

POLICE SEARCH FOR STAUFFER

ACCUSED OF 3 MURDERS AND 3 HOLDUPS IN LAST FEW DAYS

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Aug. 15.—Police of all northern Minnesota joined today in a man-hunt for William Stauffer, accused by Twin City authorities of three murders and three holdups in the last few days.

Stauffer killed Emil Engstrom, Minneapolis policeman, last night. Detectives said he fled northward on the Jefferson Highway in a new Chevrolet touring car an hour before noon today.

Highways are being watched as far north as Rice, 100 miles north of St. Paul. Knowing Stauffer is desperate, posses are ordered to shoot on sight.

Louis W. Taylor, president of the Red Top Cab company, was shot by Stauffer after he killed Engstrom. He is in a serious condition.

Police said Stauffer was implicated in the robbery at a St. Paul soft drink parlor last Thursday, during which John Rau was shot and killed.

He is also wanted in connection with the murder of Bryan DeWitz, drug clerk, in St. Paul early Monday morning. DeWitz was called from his bed by a bandit who sought to force him to open the safe in his brother's drug store. DeWitz grappled with the man and was killed. Police say the man was Stauffer.

280 Periled as Ship Hits Submerged Rocks

Southampton, Aug. 15.—A party of 280 excursionists on the steamer Princess Ena had an exciting experience when the vessel in crossing from Southampton to St. Malo, France, struck submerged rocks in a dense fog between Jersey and St. Malo. A hole was cut in the hull and a number of passengers were transferred to the boats.

Excellent order prevailed. The vessel later proceeded under its own steam.

Two of the lifeboats, containing 80 passengers, still are missing, but the authorities believe there was no cause for anxiety.

Washington Elm Dead, Tree Expert Declares

Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 15.—The Washington elm is dead. The official demise of the famed tree beneath which Washington took command of the Continental army was announced by Dr. Z. S. Sargent, director of the Arnold Arboretum of Harvard university, in a letter to Mayor Edward W. Quinn of Cambridge. "All signs of life now have gone from the Washington elm," Dr. Sargent wrote, "and there is no longer any chance of saving it."

POSSIBLE TIE-UP OF INDUSTRY IS OMINOUS SEPT. 1

GOVERNMENT SEEKS TO PREVENT A THREATENED FUEL FAMINE

OFFERS SERVICE OF THE GOVERNMENT IN THE LINE OF MEDIATION

(By United Press)
New York, Aug. 15.—President Coolidge, through his administration agencies, moved today in handling his first big domestic question—the anthracite coal strike threatened for September 1.

John Hayes Hammond, chairman of the United States Coal Commission, will tell the differing miners and operators just how the government is stacking the cards to protect the public against a fuel famine and offer the services of the government for mediation.

Hammond has received his instructions from Mr. Coolidge. They are:

1. The government, while not attempting to force the two opposing factions into agreement, will tender its services through the Coal Commission to adjust difficulties and press for a settlement.
2. The need of the public will be protected at all costs, and fuel substitutes will be provided to consumers through government channels, thus breaking the full force of the strike.

Hammond meets miners and operators at the Hotel Pennsylvania here at 3 p. m.

The miners' leaders are professing to be adamant as ever on the question of a checkoff, now rapidly becoming the chief bone of contention in the dispute.

Before leaving Atlantic City for the parley here John L. Lewis and his associates made clear once more their absolute insistence upon a system whereby union dues are deducted from miners' wages by the companies.

COOLIDGE PROGRAM TO BE SUBMITTED

New York, Aug. 15.—The United States Coal Commission in conference here today decided to submit the Coolidge program in the anthracite coal situation to the miners and operators separately.

Five members of the commission voted that the present contract be submitted to the United Mine Workers' three union delegates at 2 p. m.

Later the commission will see the operators' representatives. Results of the conference then will be sent to Mr. Coolidge at the White House. The commission decided upon this plan instead of a joint conference of the three, as had been previously arranged.

GAS CUT TO STIMULATE AUTOMOBILE SALES

Detroit, Aug. 15.—In the opinion of several motor car officials, the 6.5 cut in gasoline price in Detroit will have, if the new prices are continued during the fall, a very stimulating effect on car sales. The immediate effect will be noticed in sales of used cars, which are selling at unheard of low prices and also in the demand for new cars. A 25 per cent cut in price costs will also mean much greater use of trucks.

Five Pigs Make Trip To Market in Airplane

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 15.—Five little pigs came to market in an airplane. The porkers were shipped by air to the Omaha yards from Hooper, Neb., by Peter Parker, Jr. The plane made the trip in 45 minutes.

GASOLINE PRICE CUTTING SPREADS EASTWARD TODAY

6.6 CENTS DECREASES IN 12 STATES SAVES CONSUMERS $1,000,000 DAILY

GOV. DONAHEY APPEALS TO THE PRESIDENT FOR CHEAPER GAS IN OHIO

(By United Press)
Gasoline price cutting spread to the east today. Atlantic seaboard companies announced reductions of one-half to two cents a gallon.

The 6.6 cents a gallon decrease inaugurated by the Standard Oil company of Indiana remained in effect in 12 mid-western states, saving consumers around $1,000,000 daily.

Governors of several states scored the price war as an attempt by the Standard Oil company to eliminate competition by crushing independent dealers.

Governor Donahey of Ohio appealed to President Coolidge for cheaper gasoline for Ohio, alleging that the big companies are discriminating by selling gasoline in Indiana at 16 cents, but maintaining a price of 20 cents in Ohio.

OHIO TO DETERMINE IF CONSPIRACY EXISTS

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 15.—Ohio probed state oil distributing companies today to determine whether a conspiracy existed to fix gasoline prices.

The investigation was started under the direction of the attorney general's department at the request of Governor Donahey.

GOV. McMASTER WON'T CALL OFF GAS WAR

Pierre, S. D., Aug. 15.—Governor W. H. McMaster has no intention of trying to "call off" the gasoline war at this time.

Although independent companies will continue to sell gasoline at present prices, no further steps will be taken to compete with distributing companies. The state gasoline supply depot at Mitchell has shut down. It served its purpose—forced Standard Oil of Indiana and independent companies to meet a price of 16 to 19 cents a gallon.

Whether that is a fair price Governor McMaster expects to determine by an investigation already under way. He believes that gasoline can be sold by independents in South Dakota for 16 cents at a fair profit.

Independent dealers called on the governor today to "call off" the price war, saying they faced bankruptcy. They asserted that a price of about 20 cents a gallon is a fair price in South Dakota, and asked the governor to take steps to establish such a price. The governor was expected to take their arguments into consideration.

Minneapolis, Aug. 15.—Emil Engstrom, police taxicab inspector, was fatally shot and Louis W. Taylor, president of the Redtop Cab company, was seriously wounded late last night in an attempt to capture William Stauffer.

The latter, a taxicab driver, shot down the two and escaped in a commandeered automobile.

Stauffer was sought by police after the holdup of P. E. Thom early Tuesday. Thom, bakery, wagon driver, was strong-armed by three men. He was kicked in the mouth and lost two teeth as the thugs took $20.

Percy Phillips was arrested, and in a confession implicated Oscar Engstrom, and Stauffer was also implicated.

Using Taylor's car, they were searching for Stauffer when they saw him standing on the curbing. They drew up to the curb, and as Engstrom stepped from the car Stauffer drew a gun and shot him down. Taylor stepped from the car and was also shot down. Engstrom died at 1:50 this morning, and Taylor is not expected to live.

Openers will be between Eddie Wylie and Bill Johnson; Johnny Connolly and Kid Adams, Moorhead; and Kid Connolly of Ekelson and Glen Strain, Wheatland.

400 GALLONS BODY RUB ALCOHOL SEIZED AT SHERWOOD, N. D.

(By United Press)
 Fargo, N. D., Aug. 15.—Federal authorities today believed they had stopped an extensive liquor traffic when they seized a second shipment of body rub alcohol at Sherwood.

The shipment contained 239 cases, totaling about 400 gallons. It was billed from the Fox Salem company, Minneapolis, to the same firm at Mohall, S. D. Agents believe it is a fictitious firm. Frank Sears and William Nimitz, both of Mohall, were arrested and placed under $1,000 bond for transporting liquor. The shipment was 90 per cent alcohol.

POLICE SEARCH FOR STAUFFER

ACCUSED OF 3 MURDERS AND 3 HOLDUPS IN LAST FEW DAYS

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, Aug. 15.—Police of all northern Minnesota joined today in a man-hunt for William Stauffer, accused by Twin City authorities of three murders and three holdups in the last few days.

Stauffer killed Emil Engstrom, Minneapolis policeman, last night. Detectives said he fled northward on the Jefferson Highway in a new Chevrolet touring car an hour before noon today.

Highways are being watched as far north as Rice, 100 miles north of St. Paul. Knowing Stauffer is desperate, posses are ordered to shoot on sight.

Louis W. Taylor, president of the Red Top Cab company, was shot by Stauffer after he killed Engstrom. He is in a serious condition.

Police said Stauffer was implicated in the robbery at a St. Paul soft drink parlor last Thursday, during which John Rau was shot and killed.

He is also wanted in connection with the murder of Bryan DeWitz, drug clerk, in St. Paul early Monday morning. DeWitz was called from his bed by a bandit who sought to force him to open the safe in his brother's drug store. DeWitz grappled with the man and was killed. Police say the man was Stauffer.

280 Periled as Ship Hits Submerged Rocks

Southampton, Aug. 15.—A party of 280 excursionists on the steamer Princess Ena had an exciting experience when the vessel in crossing from Southampton to St. Malo, France, struck submerged rocks in a dense fog between Jersey and St. Malo. A hole was cut in the hull and a number of passengers were transferred to the boats.

Excellent order prevailed. The vessel later proceeded under its own steam.

Two of the lifeboats, containing 80 passengers, still are missing, but the authorities believe there was no cause for anxiety.

Washington Elm Dead, Tree Expert Declares

Cambridge, Mass., Aug. 15.—The Washington elm is dead. The official demise of the famed tree beneath which Washington took command of the Continental army was announced by Dr. Z. S. Sargent, director of the Arnold Arboretum of Harvard university, in a letter to Mayor Edward W. Quinn of Cambridge. "All signs of life now have gone from the Washington elm," Dr. Sargent wrote, "and there is no longer any chance of saving it."

GOVERNMENT SEEKS TO PREVENT A THREATENED FUEL FAMINE

OFFERS SERVICE OF THE GOVERNMENT IN THE LINE OF MEDIATION

(By United Press)

New York, Aug. 15.—President Coolidge, through his administration agencies, moved today in handling his first big domestic question—the anthracite coal strike threatened for September 1.

John Hayes Hammond, chairman of the United States Coal Commission, will tell the differing miners and operators just how the government is stacking the cards to protect the public against a fuel famine and offer the services of the government for mediation.

Hammond has received his instructions from Mr. Coolidge. They are:

1. The government, while not attempting to force the two opposing factions into agreement, will tender its services through the Coal Commission to adjust difficulties and press for a settlement.

2. The need of the public will be protected at all costs, and fuel substitutes will be provided to consumers through government channels, thus breaking the full force of the strike.

Hammond meets miners and operators at the Hotel Pennsylvania here at 3 p. m.

The miners' leaders are professing to be adamant as ever on the question of a checkoff, now rapidly becoming the chief bone of contention in the dispute.

Before leaving Atlantic City for the parley here John L. Lewis and his associates made clear once more their absolute insistence upon a system whereby union dues are deducted from miners' wages by the companies.

COOLIDGE PROGRAM TO BE SUBMITTED

New York, Aug. 15.—The United States Coal Commission in conference here today decided to submit the Coolidge program in the anthracite coal situation to the miners and operators separately.

Five members of the commission voted that the present contract be submitted to the United Mine Workers' three union delegates at 2 p. m.

Later the commission will see the operators' representatives. Results of the conference then will be sent to Mr. Coolidge at the White House. The commission decided upon this plan instead of a joint conference of the three, as had been previously arranged.

GAS CUT TO STIMULATE AUTOMOBILE SALES

Detroit, Aug. 15.—In the opinion of several motor car officials, the 6.5 cut in gasoline price in Detroit will have, if the new prices are continued during the fall, a very stimulating effect on car sales. The immediate effect will be noticed in sales of used cars, which are selling at unheard of low prices and also in the demand for new cars. A 25 per cent cut in price costs will also mean much greater use of trucks.

Five Pigs Make Trip To Market in Airplane

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 15.—Five little pigs came to market in an airplane. The porkers were shipped by air to the Omaha yards from Hooper, Neb., by Peter Parker, Jr. The plane made the trip in 45 minutes.

GOING TO STATE FAIR

More than 100 dairy calves, accompanied by their boy or girl owners, from 50 counties of the state, will be exhibited in the calf club contest at the coming Minnesota State Fair and Northwest Dairy Exposition, Twin Cities, September 1 to 8. Prizes totaling $4,280.00 are being offered by the fair, breed associations, dairy organizations, newspapers and persons interested in dairying.

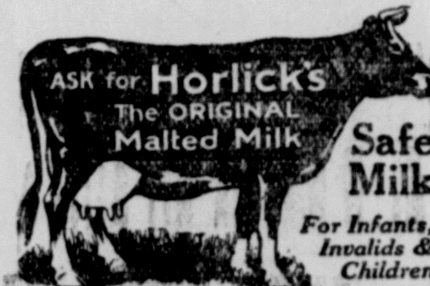

Money Not Everything.

When I hear a man saying that he is in business only for the money he can make and not for the favors he can render, I think of what some wise man said one time: "If a pig could pray he would devote his entire prayer to corn and swill, but men should pray for other sorts of things." —Tom Dreier in Forbes.

Ignore Supper Law.

One of the ridiculous acts of parliament still in existence in England is that passed in the reign of Edward III, regulating the meals of the people, which forbids more than two courses being served at dinner or supper, except on certain holidays. Needless to say, the law is broken with impunity.

WHEN KIDNEYS HURT DRINK MORE WATER

If Your Back Aches or Bladder Bothers, Take a Little Salts

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, begin drinking lots of good soft water and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year. Advt.

RICHEST VILLAGE IN GAY ATTIRE FOR ELKS' CONVENTION

Hibbing, Aug. 15.—The decorating of the village for the Elks' convention, which opens Thursday started Sunday night. The block between the railroad crossing on Third av and Howard st is a mass of color. The decorative scheme, the origination of Paul Domsch, is very attractive. Every store front is a part of the scheme. Purple, the color of the Elks, is combined with red, white and blue. Welcome signs are everywhere Howard st was decorated today.

Telegrams received by Oscar Aubin, secretary of the Hibbing lodge, indicate every lodge will be represented. Owatonna is coming the strongest, bringing a band a drum corps and 150 members. The city will also be represented by a float.

Crookston will have 50 men in line. Winona's representation will not be as large as expected. St. Paul is sending a delegation of 150 men, with a drum corps and a marching club. Minneapolis is sending 150 men and a band. St. Cloud will not enter a float nor a band but will send 50 men in automobiles.

Chisholm will enter its entire membership in the parade, will have a float, a marching club and will probably enter the Kiwanis band.

Eveleth and Virginia are both expected to have bands and large delegations. Duluth will send a delegation of 500 men with a band.

Brainerd will send a delegation of 50, making the trip by automobile.

Note—Brainerd's delegation is again advised to go to the Elks' club house, register name and where located in Hibbing. Assemble at the Androy hotel for the parade at the Androy hotel for the parade and when directed by the Exalted Ruler, march in a body to the place assigned in the line of march. Are You the Man Who "Never Reads Advertisements?"

Some men, who are neither blind nor illiterate, claim sincerely that they "never read advertisements."

Yet, if you could investigate, in each case you would find that the man who "never reads advertisements" used an advertised tooth paste or shaving cream or soap. If he owns an automobile it will be an advertised car. If you ask his opinion of any automobile he will reply in words that might have been lifted bodily from an advertisement of that automobile.

Advertising has formed his opinions to a great degree. He may have received his information through others who obtained their knowledge from advertising. But it is a fact that no man can escape the effect of advertising even if he does say he "never reads advertisements."

Not one of us ever reasoned out entirely from his own mind that the earth is round. If we had not read it or heard it we would never have known it.

In these days of good, truthful, helpful advertising to say, "I never read advertisements" is merely your way of saying "I don't read all advertisements."

SHAPING A BOY'S CHARACTER

PROBABLY more attention is now given to the subject of training children than was ever directed to it in the past. Educationalists are giving their impressions of the best methods to be used if good results are to accrue and social workers are making their contribution to the study.

Miss Eve M. Jones, of New York, president of the National Education association, speaking in Minneapolis recently, called attention to three causes of youthful "waywardness." The three causes named were failure to interest the boy in his studies, misunderstanding of the boy in his home, and misplaced hero worship. The speaker told of means that are employed in the schools in New York for the purpose of reducing the influence of these tendencies that shape the boy's character.

Many educationalists believe that the boy's interest must be gained before his attention can be secured. If this is true it is necessary to seek ways and means of gaining interest and if the boy is not interested in his books, because he is naturally "motor minded," it may be advisable to appeal to him through activities rather than through text books.

There is every reason to believe that many boys think that they are misunderstood by their parents. Little misunderstanding may actually exist but the impression that they are misunderstood is effective even if the misunderstanding is not an actuality. It is therefore necessary for parents to attempt to remove the impression by seeking to understand the boy's viewpoint.

By turning the boy's attention to a hero who is really worthwhile, he will be led away from the worship of some hero whom he has raised to that place in his appreciation. The Boy Scout movement is giving special attention to this part of the boy's life and thought.

Thoughtful persons know that it is cruel to blame parents for the mistakes of their offspring. The home is but one of the influences in the environment of the child and as such it must compete with the others which are often injurious. If the influences of the outside are stronger in their appeal than the influences of the home the boy may be led astray despite the care of his parents.

If a colt was handled at all times by his trainer than the trainer might well be blamed for any failure of the colt to respond to his control, but if he is handled by others the responsibility of the trainer is proportionately reduced because the others handling him may be the cause of his obstinacy. Something of this kind is true of the boy. If his parents alone handled him they might be considered responsible for the failure of their discipline if the boy became delinquent, but so long as others are taking their part in shaping the boy's attitude to life his parents cannot be accounted responsible for the influences that are beyond their control. It therefore behooves parents to exercise a sensible discipline in the home and at the same time to give their hearty cooperation to those who are seeking to control the influences that exist outside of the home and which are subversive of the best development of character.

OVER-DOING A GOOD WORK

AT the Mississippi Wild Life conference attention was given to the subject of drainage. It was pointed out that in Northern Minnesota drainage projects are being carried so far that they are becoming a detriment to the northern part of the state. Experts were present who are entitled to speak on such matters and they suggested that if drainage projects are initiated whereby large tracts of Northern Minnesota land will be drained the northern part of the state is liable to become practically a desert demanding irrigation before it can be made productive. It was further claimed that if drainage projects are pushed the wild life of the northern part of the state will become extinct through being robbed of its food supply.

In the light of these predictions, made by men who are authorized on such subjects, the recommendations they made ought to have careful consideration. Before further drainage is undertaken a careful study should be made to determine its effect along the lines suggested by these men. If the proposed drainage is likely to result in drying up the territory surrounding it, so that there will not be sufficient moisture left to make the land productive, or if it may destroy the growth of those plants that afford food for the wild life of the northern part of the state, they should not be undertaken.

All this is presented by authorities on the understanding that the land that is to be drained is not of a character that will make it worthwhile for agricultural purposes. If the land had high value for farming other considerations would naturally and rightly be swept aside. The wild life that affords recreation for sportsmen would not be much considered in the presence of a demand for good agricultural land. But even though the land might have an unusually high value for agricultural purposes, if by draining it the moisture would be drained away so that the land would be left without proper moisture, such undertakings should be vetoed.

There are those in Northern Minnesota who have been calling attention to matters related to the drainage projects in the northern part of the state for some time. These believe that certain values are drained into the Mississippi and carried away on its waters. Where the soil is generally light it is well to attend to these recommendations of men who are students of agriculture and of the wild life of the northern part of the state. If carelessness leads to the impoverishment of the land, agriculturalists will suffer and through them the northern part of the state as a whole, and if the wild life is destroyed the appeal to the tourist will be so reduced that Northern Minnesota will lose considerably through the shift of tourist travel to other points.

WITH over twice as much invested in agriculture as there is invested in railroads and manufacturing, stability in agricultural returns is necessary if other investments are to be of value. Individualists have no chance in the modern world.

THERE is friction in the ranks of the oil dealers and a surplus of crude oil is forcing down prices. Reasonable readjustments in prices will be an advantage.

Experts were present who are entitled to speak on such matters and they suggested that if drainage projects are initiated whereby large tracts of Northern Minnesota land will be drained the northern part of the state is liable to become practically a desert demanding irrigation before it can be made productive. It was further claimed that if drainage projects are pushed the wild life of the northern part of the state will become extinct through being robbed of its food supply.

In the light of these predictions, made by men who are authorized on such subjects, the recommendations they made ought to have careful consideration. Before further drainage is undertaken a careful study should be made to determine its effect along the lines suggested by these men. If the proposed drainage is likely to result in drying up the territory surrounding it, so that there will not be sufficient moisture left to make the land productive, or if it may destroy the growth of those plants that afford food for the wild life of the northern part of the state, they should not be undertaken.

All this is presented by authorities on the understanding that the land that is to be drained is not of a character that will make it worthwhile for agricultural purposes. If the land had high value for farming other considerations would naturally and rightly be swept aside. The wild life that affords recreation for sportsmen would not be much considered in the presence of a demand for good agricultural land. But even though the land might have an unusually high value for agricultural purposes, if by draining it the moisture would be drained away so that the land would be left without proper moisture, such undertakings should be vetoed.

There are those in Northern Minnesota who have been calling attention to matters related to the drainage projects in the northern part of the state for some time. These believe that certain values are drained into the Mississippi and carried away on its waters. Where the soil is generally light it is well to attend to these recommendations of men who are students of agriculture and of the wild life of the northern part of the state. If carelessness leads to the impoverishment of the land, agriculturalists will suffer and through them the northern part of the state as a whole, and if the wild life is destroyed the appeal to the tourist will be so reduced that Northern Minnesota will lose considerably through the shift of tourist travel to other points.

WITH over twice as much invested in agriculture as there is invested in railroads and manufacturing, stability in agricultural returns is necessary if other investments are to be of value. Individualists have no chance in the modern world.

THERE is friction in the ranks of the oil dealers and a surplus of crude oil is forcing down prices. Reasonable readjustments in prices will be an advantage.

But she did want her hair bobbed and there she is after the barber had worked for an hour over her tangled locks.

"My wife and four children were dependent on me for their living. Guy Bates Post in "The Masquerader."

G. B. Post Creates for Screen His Chilcote-Loder Masterpiece, "The Masquerader"

Unanimously acclaimed one of the most distinguished actors on the American stage today, it was natural that Guy Bates Post should have been besieged with offers of screen stardom. He has at last accepted and will be seen in "The Masquerader," the Richard Walton Tully production which comes to the Park theatre tonight and Thursday as a First National attraction.

It is regarded as fitting that Post's first film vehicle should be "The Masquerader," with its dual roles of Chilcote and Loder, for he has been playing them on the stage for over six consecutive years, aggregating more than two thousand performances, all over the United States and Canada. His tours have also included six months' stay in Australia with this play. Furthermore, Post has been under Tully's management for twelve years; two years in "The Bird of Paradise," four years as the star of "Omar the Tentmaker," and six years in "The Masquerader."

Even before coming under Tully's management, Post had established himself among the leading figures of our theatre. After a long experience in New York and the other principal cities of this country in a varied repertoire, Post came into especial prominence as the star of Rupert Hughes' play "The Bridge" and of several Clyde Fitch successes. When the New Theatre was organized in New York, with the hope of making it the endowed national home of the finest drama, he was signally honored through being selected, because of his acknowledged merit, to head the company that presented the repertoire of modern drama. It was here that he was seen in the title role of "The Nigger," Edward Sheldon's masterful play on the race problem.

new Paramount picture starring Elsie Ferguson, which will be the feature at the Lyceum theatre for two days beginning tonight.

The story of this impressive and thrilling photoplay deals with the efforts of Miriam, a deserted wife who is thrown into the streets through poverty, to reclaim a man who dissipates because of his hopeless love for a fickle woman. The various phases of this picture narrative which have their climax in an attempt at suicide and rescue at sea, are highly thrilling, and all in all, the role portrayed by Miss Ferguson is said by her to be one of the strongest she has essayed during her screen career of five years.

"Outcast" is a picturization of the play of the same name by H. H. Davies, in which Miss Ferguson starred in New York in 1914. The role of Miriam is an exacting one, requiring histrionic ability of a high order. David Powell, well known leading man, plays opposite Miss Ferguson, and Mary MacLaren, who was leading woman for Wallace Reid and other stars, has the role of Valentine.

St. Paul, Aug. 15.—Experiments are being conducted to increase the alfalfa production of some southern Minnesota counties.

Already liming of experimental fields resulted in increased yields of 75 per cent over unlimed fields. Limed soils give promise of permanent improvement, experimenters said.

ELEPHANT HERD STATE FAIR FEATURE

A herd of trained elephants, schooled by one of the greatest animal trainers in the world, will be a big feature of the vaudeville and fireworks program of the coming Minnesota State Fair and Northwest Dairy Exposition, September 1 to 8.

In the mammoth fireworks production, "India," staged before the grandstand each evening, this herd of elephants will play a big role. At the climax of the spectacle, when everything is ablaze with fire, these intropid beasts rush through the flames and exploding bombs in battle, tossing their trunks about and screaming with rage. They are the only elephants that have ever been trained to brave fire and fireworks.

The big beasts also perform on mounted stages in front of the stand each afternoon and evening. More than sixteen open-air circus acts, recruited from the four corners of the world, will be put on at the state fair each day.

Gopher Gunners

Minneapolis, Aug. 15.—The Gopher Gunners will leave tonight for their annual encampment at Camp McCoy, near Sparta, Wis., for two weeks.

Mayor George E. Leach, commander of the regiment, will take the boys into camp Friday and under the direction of United States army officers, the Minnesota artillerymen will go through a rigorous bit of training.

Camp McCoy was one of the first artillery ranges laid out by the government and is an ideal site of artillery practice. The last visit of the Minnesota gunners at Camp McCoy was the year preceding the assignment of the National Guard to the Mexican border.

Contrasting English Counties. Lincolnshire is the flattest and Westmoreland the most hilly English county.

GIANTS EXPECT TO GET THE PENNANT

New York, Aug. 15.—Figuring that the weather is nice, everything is lovely and that there are certainly two big ball parks in New York for a certain festivity in October, the New York Giants are back home.

Without saying it too loud in the presence of John McGraw, the Giants figure that the National league pennant is as good as nailed to the flag staff of the Polo grounds and they have more important things to consider.

Counting up the seats in the Yankee stadium and the newly enlarged Polo grounds, the athletes figure that with all conditions ideal and no umpire to call a game on account of darkness in broad daylight, the winners of the series will grab close to $10,000 each.

McGraw does not permit much conversation about the world's series as he has been lecturing his band all season about the evils of too much confidence, but "Jawn J." will admit, if even slyly, that the prospects are very fine.

"The pennant race is not over," McGraw said. "We know that we may have serious jumps to get over before the season is finished, but I think we have shown ourselves capable of meeting most any kind of difficulties. The prospects are good, yes, for another pennant."

After the trimming the champions gave Moran's team in Cincinnati when they took five straight games from them, the Giants have a hunch that they can sweep another series and put the pennant safely on the ice before the end of the week.

Why the Good Old Remington Pump Gun Still Outsell all Others

There's a new 20-gauge model, too—the best of the light-gauge guns. See it at your dealer's

ASK any of your friends who shoot a Remington 12-gauge Pump Gun—there are lots of them—what it is that has made this the favorite 12-gauge ever since Remington brought it out in 1900—the first solid-breech hammerless repeating shotgun ever produced.

Or better yet—if he'll let you—borrow his Model 10 and take it out in the fields or down by the water for an afternoon and try it for yourself.

***

Fire arms experts always comment on the precision and finish of the Model 10—the result of 245 separate inspections in the Remington plant.

And they remark that the receiver is machined out of solid steel—instead of made of stamped steel metal or a cored casting as is done with many shotguns.

But the man who goes out for a day's sport or to get a few ducks or rabbits for supper isn't so apt to say anything about these technical features.

He'll tell you that the Remington Model 10 shoots harder and straighter than any other 12-gauge he ever had in his hands, has an action that never balks or clogs—and seems to get better the longer he uses it.

If you're in line for something specially good in a 20-gauge—

Get your dealer to show you the new Remington Model 17. This is a hammerless, solid-breech pump action, too. Chambered for 2¾ inch shells which gives it the power and range of a 16-gauge. It is comparatively new—but already many old-timers swear by it as a "real man's gun."

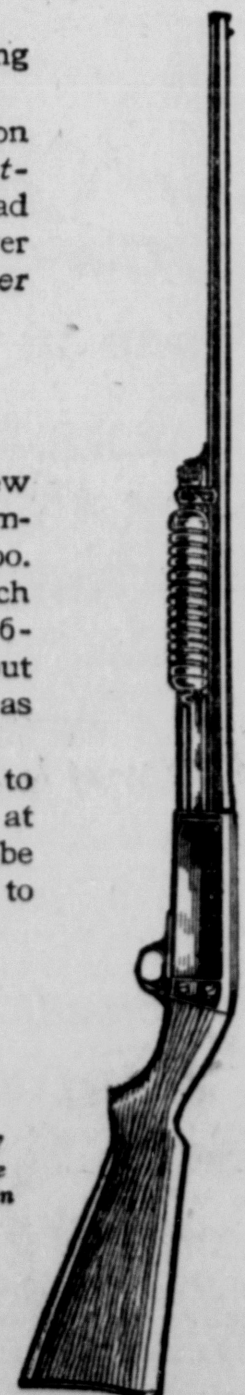

The first time you get a chance go to the gun rack at the store and look at these Remingtons. Your dealer will be glad to tell you anything you want to know about them.

Why the Good Old Remington Pump Gun Still Outsell all Others

There's a new 20-gauge model, too—the best of the light-gauge guns. See it at your dealer's

ASK any of your friends who shoot a Remington 12-gauge Pump Gun—there are lots of them—what it is that has made this the favorite 12-gauge ever since Remington brought it out in 1900—the first solid-breech hammerless repeating shotgun ever produced.

Or better yet—if he'll let you—borrow his Model 10 and take it out in the fields or down by the water for an afternoon and try it for yourself.

Fire arms experts always comment on the precision and finish of the Model 10—the result of 245 separate inspections in the Remington plant.

And they remark that the receiver is machined out of solid steel—instead of made of stamped steel metal or a cored casting as is done with many shotguns.

But the man who goes out for a day's sport or to get a few ducks or rabbits for supper isn't so apt to say anything about these technical features.

He'll tell you that the Remington Model 10 shoots harder and straighter than any other 12-gauge he ever had in his hands, has an action that never balks or clogs—and seems to get better the longer he uses it.

If you're in line for something specially good in a 20-gauge—

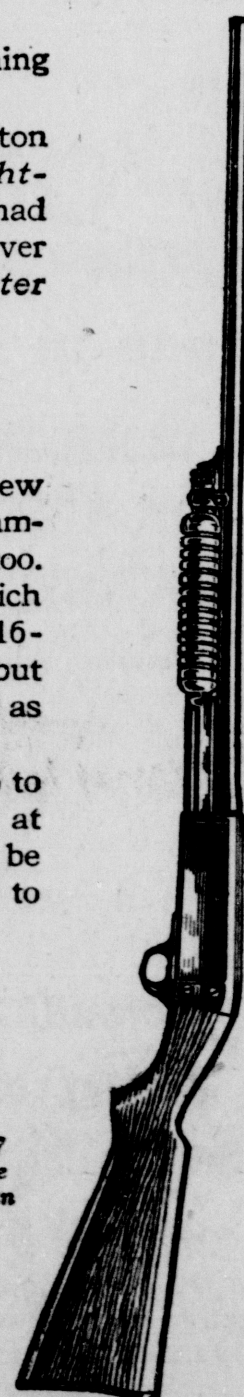

Get your dealer to show you the new Remington Model 17. This is a hammerless, solid-breech pump action, too. Chambered for 2¾ inch shells which gives it the power and range of a 16-gauge. It is comparatively new—but already many old-timers swear by it as a "real man's gun."

The first time you get a chance go to the gun rack at the store and look at these Remingtons. Your dealer will be glad to tell you anything you want to know about them.

Pikes Peak Motor

Towering peak of the California coast ranges, Mt. Diablo is scaled by a road so tortuously steep that no stock car is ever expected to reach its summit in high gear.

On its difficulties of grade are based two of the most coveted automobile trophies of the Pacific Coast: the Oakland Tribune Trophy which is offered to the motor car reaching the highest point in high gear; and the Alexander Challenge Cup for sixes exclusively.

Now—for the first time since they were offered—a six cylinder car is in possession of both cups!

For a stock Chandler, with standard gear ratio, recently captured not only the Alexander Cup with consummate ease; but in a magnificent sweep of smooth, unlabored power passed the highest point previously reached by any motor car in high gear!

No other six in the Chandler class offers an equally impressive combination of masterly performance, beauty, comfort, economy and long life. Drive it yourself—and see.

New Homes Building or Contemplated in Brainerd Total $150,000

MANY LAKE COTTAGES PLANNED

New Foundry, New High School Contemplated, New $1,000,000 Power Plant

Brainerd has enjoyed a healthy growth in the building line this season. This includes several important business blocks and a large number of new residences, with several homes remodeled.

Many lake cottages have also been built this season, more according to local lumber dealers, than for several seasons past.

The Standard Lumber Company reports the following contracts: Two fine new homes, one for Thomas Willis on North Fourth street, the other for Erick Kronberg on North Fifth. Both of these houses are absolutely modern throughout, and it is estimated that each one was built at a cost of not less than $6,500.

Waiter R. Ludlow, on South Broadway, and N. A. Jepson on East Oak street, have each remodeled and improved their homes at a cost of between $2,500 and $3,000.

The Standard Lumber Company has also furnished the building material for twelve lake cottages this summer, varying in cost from $500 to $1,500.

The Hayes-Lucas Lumber Co., was unable to furnish figures on contracts made this season, owing to the fact that a new manager is in charge who is not familiar with the business done by his predecessor. This company purchased the business of the Lakeside Lumber Co., rather late in the season to participate in the early building activities in Brainerd this year. It is known, however, that contracts were filled for six lake homes at an average cost of about $600 each.

The Mahlum Lumber Co., reports a new frame dwelling for A. C. Weber, on North Bluff Ave., a brick home for D. E. Whitney, also on Bluff avenue, a brick and frame home for Dr. W. A. Erickson at the corner of North Fourth street and Bluff, a frame home for Rudolph Peterson on North Broadway, a stucco house for E. A. Romain on North Ninth street, a dutch colonial home for Milton Mahlum on North Bluff avenue, and a frame one on North Broadway for Mons Mahlum.

In Northeast Brainerd, William Daugherty is erecting a frame home on Third avenue, Glen Morgan a house on Mill street and Charles Eue one on Eighth street. Wm. J. Hogan is remodeling his home on Farrar street.

In Southeast Brainerd, John Joki is building on Rosewood street, August Holmblad and Edward Betzold each on Quince street.

The Mahlum Lumber Company also furnished the building material for thirty lake cottages, with a total value of at least seventy thousand dollars. A number of expensive summer homes are included in this list.

In the downtown district, the new Koop building, which will be completed in the next sixty days, at the corner of South Seventh and Laurel streets, at a cost of at least $60,000, and the Ten Thousand Lakes garage, built by R. R. Wise at the corner of Front and South Fifth streets estimated at $25,000.

Mrs. George West is building an addition to her store on South Sixth street and Mrs. Bessie Closterman has remodeled her store in Northeast Brainerd, expending at least $3,000.

It is placing the cost of the new homes in the city conservatively when it is said that their total value is $150,000.

To this list can be added the new Brainerd foundry on South Tenth street, the contemplated new high school building, and the million dollar power plant which is to be started soon at the Northern Pacific shops.

ROTARIAN PICNIC AT COBBAN PLACE

HAVE WATER SPORTS GALORE

Dr. R. A. Beise's High Powered Motor Boat Supplies Thrill at 40 Miles per Hour

Rotarians and their ladies enjoyed the hospitality of Rotarian Walter Cobban at his summer home on Gull lake Tuesday, in their annual picnic.

The festivities started early in the afternoon, the picnicers enjoying the water sports provided by their host, Dr. R. A. Beise furnished some new thrills with his high powered motor boat. This craft, equipped with an aeroplane motor, took its passengers around the lake at a forty-mile per hour speed.

It is said that Ed. Cooke attempted to swim across the lake, but had to call for help when about one-hundred feet out.

Numerous big fish stories are told by those who follow in the footsteps of Isak Walton, but these tales are such whoppers that they would not sound well if credited to Rotarians.

The event closed with an excellent picnic supper, spread on specially prepared tables which Mr. Cobban arranged out-of-doors. The usual Rotary songs were sung during the meal, and the diners sat about the table until a late hour, being entertained with after-dinner talks and stories.

This is the second outing of the local Rotary club held at the invitation of Mr. Cobban at his summer home. On each occasion the host has proven himself a wonderful entertainer, and the guests have been given a most delightful picnic.

OLD FIDDLERS CONTEST

To be Held Each Wednesday and Thursday at the Lyceum Theatre

Manager W. R. Hiller of the Lyceum theatre hopes to give the old time fiddlers of Brainerd and vicinity an opportunity to come into their own again, with an old fiddlers contest to be held on each Wednesday and Thursday at this popular movie house.

The fiddler of a generation ago held a prominent place in the activities of every community. He was equally in demand at a husking bee, a wedding or a dance, the success of the occasion depending upon his ability to "Draw the Bow."

While his work is a thing of the past, still, he isn't forgotten, and his old-time music will be as much entertainment to patrons of the Lyceum as his successor, the jazz orchestra of today, could be.

Several old timers in the art of fiddling have been secured for this Wednesday and Thursday, and it is hoped that many others will enter the contest in the weeks which follow.

Prizes are to be offered to the best fiddler each week, the audience to be the judge in making the awards.

Manager Hiller asks that all fiddlers of the old school get in touch with him and arrange to get into these contests. The public is also requested to co-operate by suggesting talent with whom Mr. Hiller may get in touch.

In the meantime many an old fiddle which hasn't seen the light of day for years, is being brought out, dusted, strung and tuned, and fingers are being limbered up on quadrilles, schottisches, lancers, reels, etc., etc. The old time fiddler will reign supreme at the Lyceum on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

FIGHT MANAGER FLYNN HAS SOME IDEAS

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Aug. 15.—Just recently, Jimmy Jones, a young welterweight from Youngstown, won a referee's decision in Boston from Dave Shade. The New York boxing commission, which had previously awarded the welterweight championship to Shade because Mickey Walker, the official champion, would not fight, was then put under the job of setting up a new champion. Leo Flynn, manager of Shade, was called before the commission and asked if he could produce any reasons to show why his fighter had not lost the title.

Flynn, as crafty a manager as there is in the business, rather surprised the commissioners when he, with little fuss, said:

"If Shade had any claim to any kind of a title he certainly blew it when he blew that decision. Jimmy Jones is the champion.

Considering that the main idea of practically every boxer and every manager is to get a title and then hold it, the attitude taken by Flynn in passing away a championship without an argument was surprising.

Flynn has the largest string of boxers in the country and his earnings are said to average over $200,000 a year. He has to have some ideas to have made such a success of his business and some of his theories are unique.

"What did that title mean to us?" he asked, in explaining his ideas.

"There are only two titles that have any great value, the heavyweight and the lightweight championships. The others are mainly a bother and they cause a lot of trouble.

"There may be some glory and fame in being a champion or the manager of a champion, but there is a lot of grief with it. Say what they may, boxers and their managers are in the game purely as a business proposition. If not, why are they not amateurs? Smart boxers know that the fame they get out of championships is short-lived and that they are soon forgotten when they drop out of sight. Consider how many great fighters there have been in the past and how many of them are remembered today.

"Take the case of Dave Shade. He is the greatest drawing card in the ring outside of Dempsey and Leonard. He has had forty fights in the last two years, and because he fought often for good purses he finds himself at the age of twenty-one fixed for the rest of his days. In two more years he can retire for the rest of his days, if he wants to.

"Shade gets lots of work because he draws better as the fighter who could beat the champion if he got a chance, than the champion who is always being held up by other managers as dodging their fighters.

"With no title to worry about, we can send Shade in any place with any referee, in any kind of a decision fight, as often and as far as much money as we want. If he loses a decision, it is forgotten after he has his next fight.

"With a title we would have to argue and fight about referees, weight forfeits and a hundred other things and just as soon as he lost the title or was jobbed out of it, he would cease to be such a drawing card. Former champions have little lustre.

"Since Shade is considered all over as the next man to the welterweight championship, we get more offers than we can handle and with our services so much in demand, we can raise our bid to a champion's price. Other managers, with 'hopes,' figure: 'If we can beat Shade we can make our fighter.' It all makes business for us."

FIRPO GETS DEADLY RIGHT TO WORKING

FLOORS WEINERT FOUR TIMES BEFORE LATTER TAKES FINAL COUNT

Philadelphia, Aug. 15.—Luis Firpo, the South American giant, knocked out Charles Weinert, veteran Newark, N. J., heavyweight in the second round of a scheduled eight round bout at the National league baseball park here before more than 30,000 fans. Weinert was floored four times before his seconds leaped into the ring and the referee stopped counting. Weinert weighed 188, Firpo 212.

Just before entering the ring, Firpo declared that reports that he was anxious to postpone his bout with Jack Dempsey were exaggerated. The Argentinian admitted, however, that he would rather have another year's experience before tackling the champion.

He denied that at this late date any postponement would be asked. Firpo also announced that he would cancel his bout with Joe Downey, which was scheduled for Indianapolis on Friday night. The big South American will train near Atlantic City, where he expects to start serious work on Aug. 29. He drew down $10,000 for his five minutes' work last night.

The second round was less than a minute old when Firpo, his eyes blazing and his jaw clenched, drove Weinert back against the ropes near his own corner, and with a savage right to the chin sent him down for the count of eight. Weinert crawled to his feet, but it was apparent to all that the fight was over. Firpo clubbed him with the right and again Weinert went down, this time squarely on his back.
